

COOL OFFICES IN TECH

Walkabout SG 2015 – the fourth annual city-wide open house for tech companies – saw some 3,500 participants visit 130 companies, most of which are located in Blk 71, once dubbed the world's most tightly packed entrepreneurial ecosystem

1

Roomorama's minimalist office, resembling a house from this angle, and whose highlight is the pantry (behind the glass door) where the team gathers for daily lunches and meetings

2

Sleeping pods (left) for Garena employees to catch a power nap, sheets are changed after every use; (right) in-house tui-na massage services, which are half-hour sessions available for each employee twice monthly

3

Kristine Lauria, organiser of Walkabout SG 2015, against Golden Gate Ventures' exposed brick walls, which are part of efforts to create a cool coffee shop instead of a cubicle farm

4

One of 99.co's many Steelcase Leap chairs, known to ergonomically support various body shapes and sizes, and that collectively accounted for half the real estate startup's renovation costs