

The Shell story

- Staff headcount: About 3,200
- Investments made: Over S$10 billion
- Global headquarters for integrated gas and global commercial businesses, regional hub for Shell Shipping, Shell Aviation operations
- Main fuel supplier to PSA Corp, which operates the busiest container port in the world
- Supplies bitumen for runways at Changi and Seletar airports and Marina Bay Formula One racetrack

FILE PHOTO

Milestones

- 1891 Set up Singapore's first oil storage
- 1961 Established the first oil refinery in Singapore in Pulau Bukom
- 1970s Added investments into a Thermal Gasoil unit and a Single Buoy Mooring System off Bukom, among others
- 1990s Established chemical plants on Jurong Island
- 1991 Received the Distinguished Partner in Progress award from the Singapore government
- 2009 Opened world-scale plant producing monoethylene glycol – used in the production of polyester fibres and film among others – at Jurong Island
- 2010 Opened the Shell Eastern Petrochemicals Complex, its largest fully-integrated refinery and petrochemicals complex in the world
- 2011 Marked 120 years in Singapore. Saw one of Singapore's worst industrial fires in history at Pulau Bukom refinery
- 2013 Moved the global integrated gas business to Singapore, and gave the green light for two new world-scale plants producing high purity ethylene and ethoxylates
- 2014 Received the Honorary Partner in Progress award from the government