Singapore shares up as MAS, SGX eye bourse changes

LOCAL stocks rose on Friday (May 16), a day after the Monetary Authority of Singapore and Singapore Exchange Regulation announced they were seeking feedback on proposed changes to the Singapore bourse.

The stock exchange's blue-chip barometer, the Straits Times Index (STI), rose 0.2 per cent or 5.93 points to 3,897.87.

Across the broader market, gainers beat losers 307 to 203, as one billion securities worth $1.1 billion changed hands.

The biggest winner on the STI was CapitaLand Ascendas Reit, which was up 1.5 per cent or $0.04 at $2.63.

On the other end of the index was conglomerate Jardine Matheson, which fell 1.5 per cent or US$0.70 to US$46.74.

Another STI constituent, Singtel, gained 1.3 per cent or $0.05 to $3.80, after the group announced it has sold a 1.2 per cent stake in India's Bharti Airtel for $2 billion. Over 26.9 million Singtel shares worth $102.1 million were traded.

Outside the index, Singapore Post climbed 2.7 per cent or $0.015 to $0.575, on the back of the company reporting an underlying net loss of $461,000 for the second half ended Mar 31.

OCBC Investment Research on Friday maintained its "hold" call on the counter, saying that further clarity was needed for the group's future growth.

The local banking counters finished mixed. DBS, which traded ex-dividend, fell 1.1 per cent or $0.50 to $44.60. UOB edged up slightly by $0.01 to $35.50, while OCBC advanced 0.5 per cent or $0.08 to $16.32.

Outside Singapore, regional indices ended mixed. Hong Kong's Hang Seng Index fell 0.5 per cent, while South Korea's Kospi rose 0.2 per cent. The Bursa Malaysia Kuala Lumpur Composite Index slipped 0.1 per cent and Japan's Nikkei 225 closed flat.

DBS Group Research upgrades SIA Engineering to 'buy', raises target price

By Bryan Cheong
mrbryan@sph.com.sg

DBS Group Research upgraded SIA Engineering's (SIAEC) stock to a "buy" from a "hold", citing limited exposure to tariff-related factors, growth ahead, among other factors.

The group's target price for the shares was increased to S$2.80 from S$2.50.

"(The upgrade reflects) SIA contract repricing upside, compelling growth narrative, and limited exposure to trade-related disruptions," the research house said in its note on Thursday (May 15).

Given its parent company's strategy to maintain a young, technologically advanced fleet of airplanes, SIAEC is usually quick to gain expertise in maintaining new aircraft types and can win third-party business relating to these new-age aircraft, DBS Group Research noted.

It has the "technology edge and strong captive business volumes owing to SIA parentage; (and is) well-positioned for long-term MRO (maintenance, repair and operations) demand growth, given its established partnerships with leading OEMs (original equipment manufacturers)", analyst Jason Sum wrote. The group's strategic partnerships with leading OEMs such as Safran and Rolls-Royce position it favourably for long-term growth in services, the note added.

For the full financial year 2024/25, SIAEC's net profit grew 43.8 per cent to S$139.6 million. It said the increase was supported by stable growth in the demand for aircraft MRO.

Total revenue for the year increased by 13.8 per cent to S$1.2 billion, from S$1.1 billion.

While group expenditure also grew, it rose at a slower pace of 12.7 per cent, with the rise largely due to higher manpower costs and increased material consumption.

SIAEC shares ended at S$2.42 on Friday, up 0.4 per cent or $0.01.
