

The EUSFTA at a glance

The European Union-Singapore Free Trade Agreement (EUSFTA) builds upon and strengthens the close trade and investment links between both markets. BY JANICE HENG

Trade and investment More than 10,000 EU companies in Singapore*

BILATERAL TRADE IN GOODS

2019
S$93 billion

9.1% of Singapore's total trade in goods

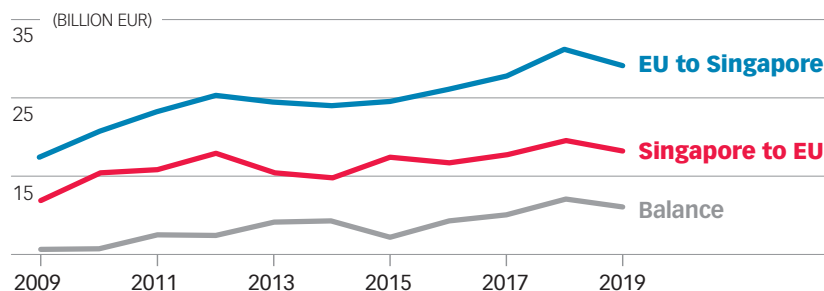

Singapore's exports to the EU

S$41 billion

Singapore's imports from the EU

S$52 billion

Bilateral trade in goods (2009-2019)

BILATERAL TRADE IN SERVICES

2018
S$74 billion

16% of Singapore's total trade in services

Singapore's exports to the EU

S$34 billion

Singapore's imports from the EU

S$40 billion

INVESTMENT (as of end 2018)

EU foreign direct investment stock in Singapore

S$333 billion

Singapore's stock of direct investment aboard in the EU

S$82.6 billion

THE EU IS SINGAPORE'S ...

4th largest goods trading partner
2nd largest services trading partner

Largest foreign investor

SINGAPORE IS THE EU'S ...

Largest trading partner in Asean for both goods and services

Largest investment destination in Asia

3rd largest Asian investor

MOST-TRADED PRODUCTS

From the EU

Aircraft and associated equipment

Electronic tubes, valves, and related articles

Perfumery, cosmetic or toilet preparations

Residual petroleum products and related materials

Trunks, suitcases, etc

Alcoholic beverages

From Singapore

Medicaments

Medicinal and pharmaceutical products

Nitrogen-function compounds

Engines and motors, non-electric

Petroleum oils other than crude

Organo-inorganic and related compounds

* As of March 2020