

ART ALL AROUND YOU

Here are some highlights of the 16 new public artworks spread over Gillman Barracks

Street artists Sheryo+Yok (Singapore/Australia) playfully reimagine the kampong house for today.

The trademark violent figures of Cleon Peterson (US) square off on the walls of Block 7, Lock Road.

Kirsten Berg (Australia) contemplates the fractal nature of being with this extraterrestrial-looking sculpture.

Stephanie J Burt's (Singapore) minimalist sculpture reinterprets the nursery rhyme: "I'm a little teapot / Short and stout ..."

Shahrul Jamili Miskon (Malaysia) comments on politics around the world with this sculpture of a fist made out of steel rulers.

Walk into the mock-up "gallery" of Benedetto Bufalino (France), created around the main signage of Gillman Barracks, accessible to the public for the first time.
