Singapore shares retreat in tandem with Wall Street pullback; STI down 0.3%

LOCAL stocks closed lower on Friday (Oct 10), after three major Wall Street indexes retreated overnight.

Blue-chip barometer Straits Times Index (STI) dipped 0.3 per cent or 13.44 points to 4,427.06, with Thai Beverage and Seatrium bookending the 30-stock tally as the top and worst performers, respectively.

Thai Beverage closed up 2.1 per cent or S$0.01 at S$0.49, while Seatrium plunged 6.6 per cent or S$0.16 to S$2.28. The marine engineering company had announced before market open that a US$475 million contract had been aborted.

Real estate agency PropNex closed at S$2.59 – a record high – after its shares rose S$0.11 or 4.4 per cent.

Addvalue Technologies was the top actively traded stock, with 83.4 million shares transacted by the time the counter closed 6.8 per cent or S$0.003 higher at S$0.047 – its 52-week high.

The banking counters had a mixed showing: OCBC inched up 0.1 per cent or S$0.02 to S$16.88, UOB was flat at S$35.33, while DBS declined 0.1 per cent or S$0.06 to S$53.85.

Decliners beat gainers across the broader market 371 to 250, as 1.8 billion securities valued at S$1.4 billion were traded.

Overnight, the Dow Jones Industrial Average dropped 0.5

per cent to 46,358.42, the S&P 500 slid 0.3 per cent to 6,735.11, and the Nasdaq Composite was 0.1 per cent lower at 23,024.62, amid cautious investor sentiment over concerns of overheating in the market.

The STI closed 0.3 per cent up week on week.

Delta electronics shares slump in Bangkok due to exchange curbs

DELTA Electronics (Thailand) shares fell the most in four months after the stock exchange imposed market surveillance measures on the securities following their record-breaking rally.

The stock declined as much as 11 per cent, the most since Jun 4, before trimming losses to close down 9.1 per cent in Bangkok.

Shares in Delta, Thailand's most valuable publicly traded company, can no longer be used as collateral in the calculation of credit lines.

Investors must pay the full amount of cash prior to trading the securities, according to the first-level measures imposed by the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET).

The restrictions took effect from Friday (Oct 10) to Oct 30, the bourse said in a statement on Thursday.

"We expect share selloffs" as that was the result when similar measures were imposed in the past, Citigroup analyst Sureeporn Sirisansaneeyawong in Bangkok wrote in a research note.

AI boost

Delta Thailand shares had surged 25 per cent this month to Thursday, while the nation's benchmark SET Index gained just 3.1 per cent. The stock has more than tripled in price from its April low, boosted by optimism over its role as maker of components for artificial-intelligence data centres.

Delta shares slid last November when the exchange also triggered market surveillance measures following a surge in the stock price. The securities fell to a three-year low before rallying.

The company was not aware of any reason for the latest surge in its share price, it said in a statement published on Thursday.

Delta shares have been "consistently ranking as the most active for several consecutive days", the exchange said.

The company's market capitalisation represents almost 15 per cent of Thailand's equity benchmark index, it said. BLOOMBERG
