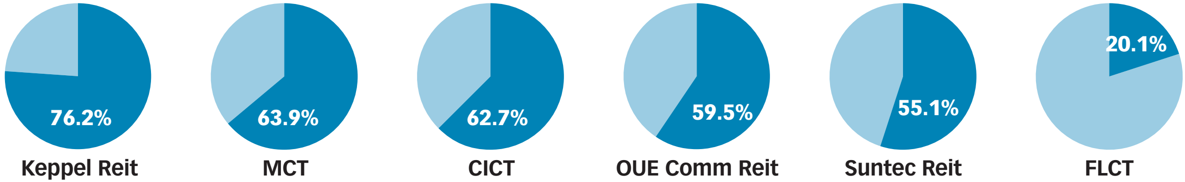
Returning to the office

S-Reits with significant exposure to local office properties by portfolio value



Note: Singapore office assets by property value are calculated as a percentage of the Reit's total portfolio value which may include other assets such as retail, convention centres, hospitality, etc. Integrated developments that have exposure to office assets are also included in the calculation of Singapore office assets, where available.

Source: S-Reits company data, SGX (data as of latest reported financials available on March 25, 2021)