

Lower investment minimums

Some crowdfunding platforms do not impose a minimum level of investment. On the contrary, in some overseas jurisdictions, regulatory authorities have imposed a maximum level of investment when participating in crowdfunding. For example, in Australia, it has been proposed that an investment cap of A$2,500 (S$2,611) over a 12-month period be placed on the amount an investor can invest in any particular company.