

COG Fellowship

Meet like-minded corporate leaders who are leading or influencing corporate giving in their organisations

Network with senior leaders across business, government, and civil society on doing good

Develop insights on the giving landscape and broaden perspectives in harnessing untapped opportunities for businesses in the community

Gain knowledge and skills on designing corporate giving strategies and programmes that meet business and community needs

Access partnership opportunities to align and integrate “doing good” as part of business that is strategic, sustainable and impactful