

Showdown at Bukit Batok

Singapore Democratic Party

Chee Soon Juan

Age: 53

Occupation: Secretary-General, SDP
Last election: Part of the four-member SDP team that lost to the PAP in Holland-Bukit Timah GRC at the 2015 General Election

People's Action Party

Murali Pillai

Age: 48

Occupation: Head of Commercial Litigation, Rajah & Tann
Last election: Part of the five-member PAP team that lost to the Workers' Party in Aljunied GRC at the 2015 General Election

Timeline of events

April 20
 President Tony Tan Keng Yam issues Writ of Election

April 27-May 5
 Campaigning

May 7
 Polling Day
 Voting takes place from 8am to 8pm

March 12
 David Ong resigns as Bukit Batok MP, citing personal indiscretions

April 27
 Nomination Day
 Prospective candidates have between 11am and noon to file their nomination papers at Keming Primary School

May 6
 Cooling-Off Day
 All forms of campaigning are barred on this day, to allow voters to reflect on the issues raised

GE Results 2015

73.4%
 David Ong, PAP

26.4%
 Sadasivam Veriyah, SDP

0.6%
 Samir Salim Neji, (independent)

Bukit Batok profile

Total population*

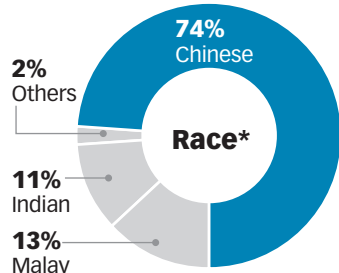

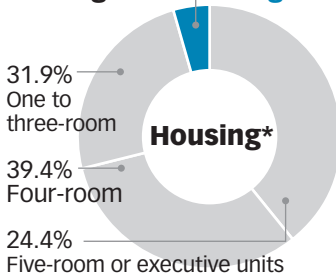

45,900

Number of voters

25,616

(as at April 14, 2016)

95.7% Public housing
4.2% Private housing

*as at September 2015