

The smart car buying guide

In March, seven new car models were launched. The BYD T3 electric van is fitted with all-electric drivetrain to deliver lower running costs while still offering a competitive payload capacity. Another electric van, the Maxus e-Deliver 3, offers a zero-tailpipe emissions alternative for logistics operations.

The new Honda Odyssey, the brand's flagship MPV, comes with a bold new exterior and both seven and eight-seater configurations. Skoda introduced two compact models: the highly functional hatchback Scala and the ruggedly styled Kamiq SUV. BMW unveiled two flagship M models – the new M3 sedan and M4 coupe, combining bold new design, increased performance and enhanced technology.

For April, two launches have been announced. Mercedes-Benz will bring in its new-generation S-Class flagship luxury sedan on March 30, while Jaguar is also set to unveil its updated F-PACE SUV
