

Total value of exported construction contracts

Value of exported construction projects has decreased since 2009, making up less than five percent of domestic construction projects in 2013

