

Tracing the journey of HUDC privatisation

2017

Last estate to be privatised

Privatisation of Braddell View marked the closure of HUDC privatisation programme on Mar 17.

2014

4 estates were privatised in the same year

- Serangoon North (renamed Serangoon Ville)
- Hougang Avenue 2 (renamed Florence Regency)
- Hougang Avenue 7 (renamed Rio Casa)
- Potong Pasir Avenue 1 (renamed Raintree Gardens)

2013

Shunfu privatised
(Renamed Shunfu Ville)

2011

Eunosville privatised

4 estates were privatised in the same year

- Bedok Reservoir (redeveloped as Waterfront Waves, Waterfront Key, Waterfront Gold and Waterfront Isle)
- Tampines Court
- Farrer Court (redeveloped as d'Leedon)
- Amberville (redeveloped as Silversea)

2007

Laguna Park privatised

2004

Chancery Court privatised

2003

Lakeview privatised

2002

Hougang South (Lor Ah Soo) privatised

(Renamed Minton Rise and redeveloped as The Minton)

2001

Jurong East privatised
(Renamed Ivory Heights)

1998

1996

First HUDC estates to be privatised

- Pine Grove
- Gillman Heights (redeveloped as The Interlace)

1995

Start of privatisation programme

Government announced the HUDC privatisation programme