

Capital adequacy ratios of major life insurers in Singapore

The minimum capital requirement, also known as capital adequacy ratio, comes under the current risk-based capital (RBC) framework and serves as a buffer to absorb losses. The ratios show the financial strength of the nine major life insurers over a span of five years.

2009 2010 2011 2012 2013

180%