Singapore shares start 2026 higher; STI up 0.2%

LOCAL stocks rose on Friday (Jan 2) as markets reopened after New Year festivities, on the back of the Republic reporting 4.8 per cent gross domestic product growth for 2025.

The benchmark Straits Times Index (STI) gained 0.2 per cent or 9.91 points to finish at 4,656.12. Meanwhile, the iEdge Singapore Next 50 Index climbed 0.6 per cent or 8.24 points to 1,458.37.

Across the broader market, advancers outnumbered decliners 369 to 209, after 1.8 billion securities worth S$958.3 million changed hands.

The strong market start followed advance estimates from the Ministry of Trade and Industry (MTI) on Friday that showed Singapore's economy grew 4.8 per cent last year – the fastest pace since 2021's 9.8 per cent year-on-year expansion, said OCBC chief economist Selena Ling.

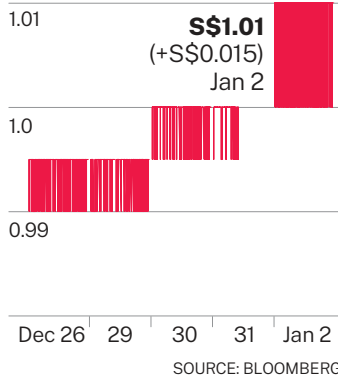

OCBC maintained its 2026 GDP growth forecast at 2 per cent, while MTI projected a full-year expansion of 1 to 3 per cent.

On the STI, the top gainer was Frasers Logistics & Commercial Trust, which rose 1.5 per cent or S$0.015 to end at S$1.01. Meanwhile, Jardine Matheson was at the bottom of the table. It was down 1.1 per cent or US$0.78 to US$67.61.

The three local banks ended higher. DBS gained 0.1 per cent or S$0.04 to close at S$56.40, OCBC rose 0.5 per cent or S$0.09 to S$19.85, and UOB was up 0.5 per cent or S$0.19 at S$35.25.

Globally, stocks started 2026 on a positive note amid thin holiday trading.

Key regional indices ended mixed. Hong Kong's Hang Seng Index rose 2.8 per cent and South Korea's Kospi gained 2.3 per cent, while Malaysia's FTSE Bursa KLCI fell 0.6 per cent. Markets in Japan and mainland China remained closed.

Precious metals kick off the New Year higher after a record-breaking 2025

PRECIOUS metals started the New Year higher on Friday (Jan 2), as gold climbed a little from a two-week low hit in the previous session, while the others also pared some losses accumulated in the past week, even as the metals notched unprecedented gains in 2025.

Spot gold rose 0.8 per cent to US$4,346.69 per ounce as at 8.19 am, after hitting a record high of US$4,549.71 on Dec 26. It fell to a two-week low on Wednesday.

US gold futures for February delivery gained 0.5 per cent to US$4,360.60 per ounce.

Bullion staged a stellar rally in 2025, ending the year with annual gains of 64 per cent, its largest since 1979.

Interest rate cuts and bets of further easing by the US Federal Reserve, geopolitical conflicts, robust demand from central banks and rising holdings in exchange-traded funds had fuelled gold's rally last year.

As per the minutes of the Fed's last two-day session in December, the central bank agreed to cut interest rates only after a deeply nuanced debate.

Investors currently expect at least two rate cuts by the Fed this year. Non-yielding assets tend to do well in low-interest-rate environments.

Spot silver added 2.1 per cent to US$72.75 per ounce, after hitting an all-time high of US$83.62 on Monday. Silver ended the year surging 147 per cent, far outpacing gold, in what was its best year ever on-record. The metal broke through multiple important milestones for the first time, propelled by its designation as a critical US mineral, supply constraints and low inventories amid rising industrial and investment demand.

Spot platinum was up 0.2 per cent at US$2,057.74 per ounce, after rising to an all-time high of US$2,478.50 on Monday, and it too staged its largest gain in a year ever, having climbed 127 per cent.

Palladium rose 2.4 per cent to US$1,642.90 per ounce, closing the previous year up 76 per cent, its best in 15 years. REUTERS
