

Use of money by age category

*Percentage of respondents in each age category who selected a particular use of money as one of their top three wealth usage preferences. The values displayed add up to more than 100% because respondents could choose multiple categories.