

Polling Day

What to expect

8am: Nine polling stations will open, for up to 25,727 voters to cast their ballots.

---

8pm: Polling stations close. Ballot boxes are then sealed and transferred to two counting centres.

---

9.30pm to 10pm (estimate): Elections Department will publish a “sample count” result on its website, while counting is still in progress. This is based on 100 votes randomly collected from each polling station.

---

11pm to 11.30pm (estimate): Assuming there isn't a recount, Returning Officer Ng Wai Choong will announce the results on 'live' TV.
