THE STAGE IS SET FOR THE SINGAPORE QUALIFIERS OF THE WORLD AMATEUR GOLFER'S CHAMPIONSHIP

Next weekend, over 60 amateur golfers from across the island will compete for a chance to represent Singapore at the finals of the World Amateur Golfers' Championship.

Taking place at The Els Club, Desaru Coast, the first round will be played on the Vijay Singh-designed Valley Course, where the top 30 percentile will return for the final round on the second day.

Golfers who miss the cut on the first day will get to enjoy a social round on day two at the Ocean Course, designed by golfing legend Ernie Els.

The Singapore qualifiers are organised by SPH Golf in conjunction with the Singapore Golf Association and Under Armour as the Presenting Sponsor.

"Over the years, we have had a close relationship with golf champions like Jordan Spieth, and this year we are excited to support the new participants in the 24th edition of the championship. We wish them all the best," says Yvonne Tey, Marketing Director, UA Sports (S.E.A) Pte Ltd.

The World Finals will take place in Johor, Malaysia from Oct 20 to 28. The finals will be held across four clubs in Malaysia – The Els Club Desaru Coast, Palm Resort Golf & Country Club, Horizon Hills Golf & Country Club and Forest City Golf Resort.

Throughout the finals, the Singapore team will be fully decked out, head to toe, in Under Armour apparel and will be staying at the Forest City Golf Hotel.

Registration for the Singapore qualifiers of the World Amateur Golfers' Championship will end on Monday (Oct 1) and can be done via <http://sphgolf.com/wagc/>
