

The smart car buying guide

New car launches and upcoming launches for the month

In January, seven new car models were launched in Singapore showrooms. The new generation of Honda's ever-popular Jazz compact hatchback now features a hybrid option alongside the 1.5-litre petrol engine. The car was launched Jan 28, with pre-launch bookings already open since Jan 7. Toyota unveiled the brand new Yaris Cross, a compact crossover that combines a hybrid powertrain and extensive safety features with bold and robust design.

The BMW World SG showcase, which runs from Jan 15 to Feb 19, saw the local introduction of four new BMW models. These include the BMW 1 Series 116i - a Category A COE variant of the 1 Series - and a new plug-in hybrid variant of the 5 Series sedan, the 530e, which combines a 2.0-litre engine with an electric motor. Two high-performance models from BMW M are also on showcase - the new M3 and M4 Competition, delivering bold design combined with scintillating performance and dynamism.

Also this month, Porsche put out the facelifted Panamera luxury sedan, now looking sportier with better chassis dynamics and improved control systems. Two variants are currently available.

In February, one new car launch has been announced. The new Lamborghini Huracan STO, the brand's latest V10 creation, will be unveiled in Singapore at the start of February.
