

The smart car buying guide

New car launches and upcoming launches for the month

Three new car models were launched in February. Five units of the special edition MINI Paddy Hopkirk Edition, commemorating the first triumph of the classic Mini at the legendary 1964 Monte Carlo Rally, have been made available for the Singapore market. MINI also launched the John Cooper Work GP Inspired Edition. Conceptualised in Singapore, the car offers design elements derived directly from the MINI John Cooper Works GP. Also this month, Lamborghini launched the new Huracan STO, a road-going supercar with design and performance features inspired by the GT3 EVO racecar.

For March, two new launches have been announced. Lexus will market two of its flagship models. The new Lexus LS is the brand's executive saloon that reflects the evolution of the Lexus DNA for exceptional quietness and comfort. The LC Convertible, meanwhile, joins the Coupe as an aspirational halo model for the Lexus lineup.
