Singapore shares dive a day after US unleashes tariff tsunami; STI down 3%

ALL but two constituents of Singapore's 30-stock Straits Times Index (STI) closed in the red on Friday (Apr 4).

This comes a day after the United States unveiled reciprocal tariffs against its trading partners, with duties ranging from 10 to 50 per cent.

The blue-chip gauge closed 3 per cent or 116.37 points lower at 3,825.86. It slid 3.7 per cent week on week.

Thai Beverage and Genting Singapore were the only two stocks on the STI that were not hit, with both finishing flat.

The beverage company's counter closed at S$0.51, while shares of the integrated resort operator settled at S$0.73.

DBS was the worst-performing STI counter, ending 4.9 per cent or S$2.22 lower at S$43.30.

Across the broader market, decliners beat gainers 378 to 105. Some 1.4 billion securities valued at nearly S$2.9 billion were transacted.

In other Asia-Pacific markets, Japan's Nikkei 225 index logged the biggest loss among its regional peers at 2.8 per cent.

The China, Hong Kong, Taiwan and Indonesia markets were closed on Friday.

Tesla estimates get more cuts amid 'brand damage'

ONE of Wall Street's most bearish Tesla analysts further reduced estimates for the company's earnings, citing the magnitude of car-buyer backlash against Elon Musk.

Tesla's first-quarter vehicle deliveries were far below even JPMorgan Chase analyst Ryan Brinkman's pessimistic estimate, "confirming the unprecedented brand damage we had earlier feared," he said in a report on Friday (Apr 4).

The sales report "causes us to think that – if anything – we may have underestimated the degree of consumer reaction," Brinkman wrote.

Tesla shares fell more than 5 per cent before the start of regular trading on Friday. The stock has slumped 44 per cent since hitting a record high on Dec 17.

Tesla delivered 336,681 vehicles in the first three months of the year, its worst quarterly total since 2022. In addition to changing over production lines at each of its assembly plants to build the redesigned Model Y, the automaker was contending with Musk, its chief executive officer, becoming a more polarising figure due to his interventions in global politics.

JPMorgan now expects Tesla's first-quarter earnings to slip to US$0.36 a share, short of its previous projection of US$0.40 and analysts' average estimate of US$0.46.

Brinkman also trimmed his full-year projection to US$2.30 a share. Analysts surveyed by Bloomberg are on average estimating the company will earn US$2.70 per share – and Brinkman notes that this figure has dropped 17 per cent since Tesla last reported quarterly earnings in late January.

Musk is expected to step back from his role leading the initiative known as the Department of government Efficiency once his 130-day period as a temporary adviser to President Donald Trump has lapsed, Bloomberg reported on Thursday.

The billionaire will however still wield significant influence over the federal cost-cutting effort and remain a Trump confidant after his formal departure, according to people familiar with the matter.
